OLD BUSINESS

Agony & Ecstasy – Leo talked about some swear words in a painting that were noticed after it was hung and a complaint was made. The artist replaced the painting. The reception went well. No sales so far. Take down will be 9 a.m. -11 a.m. February 8.

Mortal Loveliness – There is a concern about how many pieces we have for this show (14). Decisions on hanging locations in the gallery will be decided on February 8, 2019. Tasks were divided up among GAC members. Posters will be done by a Gresham High School student, musician has been chosen, and Denise volunteered to make labels.

Juried Show – There were discussions regarding the Juried show criteria which the committee will finalize in June. Maybe Preston could be the Juror now that he is not on the committee. Could members of the committee that have never been in a Juried show, participate? What will our prize category(ies) be; i.e. age, medium, 1st-2nd-3rd-, going by the binder, will we have a Mayor award, who will be on the selection team etc.? Nothing was determined and the topic was moved to a future meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

No new business
